CLUBCORP®
THE WORLD LEADER IN PRIVATE CLUBS®

OUR MISSION:

We want people to fully understand Hemp and the value education will have on humanity. Our goal is to help people rediscover earth's number one renewable resource, industrial Hemp, and all it has to offer each and every community in commerce, nutrition, freedom, and independence.

Hemp's re-introduction to agriculture will revolutionize a sustainable future for the economy and the environment for generations to come. Through education we can empower our youth with new solutions that will take us to a cleaner and therefore a healthier future with hemp.

Come join us in the celebration of the changing dynamics in Hemp and Cannabis around the world.
Let's work together to continue inspire and change the world.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Joshua Otten, co-founder of cannabis lifestyle brand PRØHBTD, has launched a new content services and distribution agency, RONIN, and, in partnership with rapper and Cookies entrepreneur, Berner, announced a new cannabis OTT network and mobile content platform, SOCIAL CLUB TV.

Featuring new and existing series, including "Marijuana Mania," "HighTech," "Dot Pie," and more, with distribution across Apple TV, Roku, and Amazon Prime, SOCIAL CLUB TV will reach millions of viewers daily, becoming the world's largest and most widely-distributed network of dedicated cannabis content.

With the PRØHBTD brand team primarily focused on developing a line of branded consumer products, it created a great opportunity to build and expand upon the success and history of the content division. By creating a new stand-alone dedicated company with a singular focus on serving the growing demand for branded cannabis and hemp-focused video, RONIN will produce leading original content with on-demand production services and a media distribution department. RONIN will be led by Otten as CEO with Shelley Madison as Chief Creative Officer and Jason Rhude named Chief Revenue Officer.

"For over five years, PRØHBTD has been at the forefront of bringing cannabis stories to life by producing premium content and delivering it to the masses," says RONIN CEO, Joshua Otten. "As I transition from my role as Chief Content Officer at PRØHBTD, I'm thrilled to continue and further that legacy by launching RONIN and SOCIAL CLUB TV to bring cannabis brands and conversations further into the mainstream."

CLUBCORP®
THE WORLD LEADER IN PRIVATE CLUBS®

February 21, 2020

To Whom It May Concern,

ELF GOLF has strategic partnership with the ClubCorp USA to hold Seven Events in 2020. Launching April 16th at Mission Hills Country Club.

Calendar projections for 2021, we plan to go up to 30 golf tournaments. The goal is to grow these Tournaments year over year and potentially culminate with an ELF Golf Championship at the end of 2021 at a Premier ClubCorp property.

We decided to partner with ELF Golf not only because of their current success rate but the way they put on and execute Golf Tournaments is different than traditional golf events and draws a younger demographic. Not to mention the events are simply more fun and most importantly, memorable. The opportunity here is not to simply take part in a golf tour or individual tournaments, but to realize the draw that ELF Golf has and drive our membership along with event revenues.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Rodney
